Terms of Payment

School fees are levied four times per year for Prep to Year 11 and three times a year for Year 12.

Accounts are sent to parents on the first day of each term and are due and payable within 14 days of receipt. The School appreciates your promptness in attending to your accounts. Fees paid by credit card will incur a merchant surcharge.

Notice to Withdraw

One of the conditions of enrolment at Melbourne Grammar School, is that in the event of your child's withdrawal from the School, one full term's prior notice must be given in writing to the Headmaster. Notice is required by the commencement of the student's final term at the School. If such notice is not given the tuition fees and, if applicable, boarding fees for the next term, will be payable in full.
