Edwin H Flack Scholarship Candidate Information

MELBOURNE
GRAMMAR SCHOOL
AN ANGLICAN SCHOOL

The Edwin H Flack Scholarship recognises a boarding student who demonstrates strong intellectual aptitude, leadership traits and breadth of involvement beyond academic studies.

The original intention of the Trustees in 1938 was to grant the scholarship as a means of perpetuating the name of Edwin Flack at Melbourne Grammar, by providing an opportunity for a boy from the country, whose parents would otherwise not be able to afford it, to receive the first-class education which the School provides.

The Flack Scholarship, which covers at least fifty per cent to a maximum of 75% remission of both boarding and tuition, is open to boys from regional areas in Australia, entering Year 7 or 9 in 2019.

The Scholarship will be awarded on the basis of the application, school reports, examination, an interview with the Headmaster and approval by the Trustees of the Scholarship.
